

Derwent London plc
(“Derwent”/“Company”)

Derwent London appoints new non-executive director

Derwent London is pleased to announce the appointment of Helen Gordon, who will be joining the board as an independent non-executive director with effect from 1 January 2018.

Helen is a Chartered Surveyor with significant experience in the real estate market. Helen has been CEO of Grainger plc (Grainger) since January 2016 and prior to joining Grainger, was the Global Head of Real Estate Asset Management at Royal Bank of Scotland and Property Director of Legal and General Investment Management's Life Fund.

Robbie Rayne (Chairman) said:

“We are delighted that Helen is joining the board of Derwent London. Her extensive knowledge of the real estate market across a wide range of perspectives will enable her to make a valuable contribution to our Group.”

There is no information to be disclosed pursuant to LR 9.6.13R in respect to this directorship.

Enquiries:

D A Lawler
Company Secretary

22 November 2017

020 7659 3000
www.derwentlondon.com